James C. and Mary B. McReynolds, emigrated to Kentucky in 1833, settling in Trigg County, where they died, the mother in 1837, and the father in 1844. In 1846, John O. came to Elkton, Todd County, and studied medicine under Dr. James A. McReynolds; entered the Jefferson Medical College of Philadelphia in 1847; graduated therefrom in 1849 and at once entered upon the practice of his profession in Elkton, where, with slight exceptions he has since practiced; he enjoys the confidence of a large circle of friends, who appreciate him for his many manly qualities, as well as for his ability as a physician. He has been twice married, first to Miss Julia P. Gorin in 1853, who died the same year; second, in 1859 to Miss Ellen, daughter of Clark Reeves, who has borne him four children, viz.: Mary B., wife of his partner, Dr. Zarecor; James C., a law student in the University of Virginia; Robert P. and Ellie R. The parents are natives of North Carolina, from whence they came to Kentucky in 1850, and settled in Logan County, where they still reside. Mr. Miles came to Elkton, Todd County, in 1877, and formed a copartnership with Dr. C. D. Lewis, in the drug business. This connection existed three years, and terminated by the retirement of the latter-named gentleman. Since that time he has prosecuted this line of business and now has a good thriving trade, located on the south side of public square. He was married to Miss Elva B. Willoughby, January 12, 1881. She is a daughter of Frank and Maria Willoughby, and was born in Montgomery County, Tenn., June 30, 1856. They have two children, viz.: Frank Willoughby, and Lawrence A. Miles.
