

Graves County

Note: Additional information may be found in the county files in the library of the Kentucky Historical Society

Cemetery Name	Address	City	Zip	# of graves	Notes
Anderson Cemetery	Between 6th & 7th on James St			0	contains remains of first settler in the city of Mayfield
Camp Beauregard Cemetery	St Rt 2422	Water Valley		0	Was civil war encampment and many soldiers buried there. Many died of malaria epidemic.
Camp Beauregard Cemetery	Rt. 2422, 1 1/4 Mi. E. of Water Valley	Water Valley	42085	0	Earliest established cemetery in area. Many Confederate soldiers died of typhoid fever while stationed here. 1200-12500 buried in unmarked graves
CLARKES RIVER CEMETERY	10869 ST RT 131	SYMSONIA	42082	0
FOY CEMETERY	SR 303 S OF SR 94 ABOUT 5 MILES ON LEFT			0	VERY OLD; CIVIL WAR VETS BURIED HERE
GOODWIN	3.8 MILES SOUTH OF MAYFIELD ON KY 97			0	The graves are old. Could be historical, but cannot confirm. The farm has been in family since 1900 at least. I think the preservation of any grave is significant.
HICKS CEMETERY	ST RT 301; HICKS CEMETERY RD	MAYFIELD		0	Land believed to have been donated by James V. Hicks & his father as a community & family cemetery during Civil War. Believed that 1st burial was a soldier who died in a camp along the Clarks River.
Highland Park Cemetery	211 E Broadway	Mayfield	42066	0
HONEYCUT	HOPEWELL RD			0
Kirby Cemetery	1 Mi N end of Dubline, Ky	Fancy Farm	42039	0	Over 100 Yrs old. Original settlers buried here. Historical value
LIGON	IVY RD			0
Maplewood Cemetery	E Lochridge	Mayfield		14644	Internationally known for Wooldridge Monuments; 4 members of US congress buried there; 1st woman sheriff in KY buried there. Mentioned on TV & movies, including TV show Unsolved Mysteries

Pleasant Hill Cemetery	Latta Rd	Water Valley		200	First marked grave 1835, most burials prior to 1900, last burial 1952. Revolutionary soldiers buried, 2 veterans of war of 1812, 15 known confederate veterans some blacks buried in unmarked graves.
PRYOR CHAPEL CHURCH	END OF CROWDER RD			0	WWII VETERANS ARE BURIED HERE.
SCHOFIELD-LAWRENCE FAMILY	MOON RD	Fulton	42041	0	EARLY SETTLERS
Symsonia Cemetery	Hwy 348 East	Symsonia	42082	0	