Aaron Willoughby Information

The Willoughby Family

There were a number of Willoughbys in Pike County, Georgia. Many of these appear to be the descendants of Aaron Willoughby and Sarah Benson. Aaron Willoughby married Sarah Benson in Columbia County, Georgia on July 25, 1800. It is likely that Aaron Willoughby was the brother of Dicey, but this is not proven. Warren and Columbia Counties bordered each other in 1800 and it is quite possible that the Willoughby and Jones families were living in Columbia County, Georgia at the time and that Aaron traveled to Warren County to be married by a traveling circuit preacher. Aaron Willoughby also appears in the 1805 tax list for Warren County (page 199). This supports the theory that the Willoughby family may have lived near this border and traveled freely between the two counties. Aaron Willoughby appears (at age 85) in the 1850 US Census for Pike County, Georgia, living near Solomon Willoughby. [Note: William Willoughby b. 1759, a Rev. War veteran, was living in Richmond Co., GA by 1790 when he married Jerusha (Jerusalem) Jones, a daughter of Thomas Jones of Green County, Georgia. Thomas Jones died in Columbia County, Georgia in 1804 listing his children in his will as: William, Thomas, Robert, Elits James, Jerusalem, Mary, Sarah, and Ann. While William Willoughby was not the father of Aaron, he might have been related. William Willoughby was from Virginia.] [Note: Wrial Willoughby b. 1808 in Wilson County, North Carolina, the son of Cader/Kader Willoughby and Susannah Moody, of Johnston Co., N.C was married 1st to a Elizabeth Watts and they had 11 children: Pinkney, Richard, Solomon, Martha, Susan, John, William, James, Agton, Andrew, and Anthony.]

This post was forwarded to me by Lorene, who is diligently researching her husband's family. She has found many documented sources, but the link between Daniel Richard and who his Father was has not been found. This post from the Web is being added to help explain the descendant line of Aaron Willoughby, who may be the Father or Grandfather of Daniel Richard Willoughby. See Richard's Civil War Pension Application where he stated his birth took place in Monroe Georgia. Aaron and Thomas Willoughby were listed on the 1830 census and had children the age of Richard. This ancestor line is being researched and any new information will be added. If anyone has anything to add please contact me.
