relict and executrix of the deceased and now herself deceased. (Processes in the Court of Delegates, vol. 269, no. 630.)

24 October 1697 [after various adjournments and pleadings]. Elias and Stephen Hasket appear as above, and also Richard Gaulpin, cousin once removed ("consobrinum semel remotum"), and Mary Crumsey, Richard Sheane, and Mary Burnet, grandnieces and grandnephew ("neptes et nepotem semel remotos") of said deceased also appear. (Ib.)

Depositions for Richard Gaulpin.

Egidius Hallett of Bowdon in Henstridge, where he has lived since infancy, aged 80 years, deposes that he has well known Elias Hasket for thirty years and more, but Stephen Hasket and Mary Crumsey and Dorothy Hedditch he did not know. He well knew William Stibbs, who died at Bowdon and was his neighbor. This William had five daughters, Elinor, Susanna, Ann, Margaret, and Edith Stibbs. He well knew Elias Hasket, father of Elias Hasket deceased, who was married to Ellinor Stibbs, and Elias Hasket the testator, whose estate is in issue, was the son of the said Elias Hasket and Elinor Stibbs alias Haskett, his wife. The testator was born in Henstridge. The sister of Elinor Stibbs, Ann Stibbs, married Thomas Gaulpin and had seven sons, the youngest of whom is Richard Gaulpin, a party to this suit. Sworn 16 September 1697.

Thomas Clarke of Yenston in Henstridge, where he has lived from infancy, husbandman, aged 77 years, deposes that he knew Elias Hasket but not Crumsey, Stephen Hasket, or Hodditch. He was a neighbor of William Stibbs, and knew his daughters Elinor and Ann. Elinor married Elias Hasket the Elder, father of Elias Hasket the testator. Ann married Thomas Gaulpin, and they were always taken for man and wife in Henstridge. They had several children, among them Richard. Sworn 16 September 1697.

William Rideout of Yenston in Henstridge, where he has lived since infancy, aged 60 years, deposes that he has known Elias Hasket and Stephen Hasket for twelve years, but does not know Crumsey or Hedditch. He was a neighbor of Elinor Hasket alias Stibbs and of Elias Hasket, Jr., whose estate is in litigation. Elinor was widow of Elias Hasket, Sr., the father of Elias Hasket, Jr., deceased, the testator. He deposes as the others as to the relationship of Gaulpin and Hasket. (Ib.)

Depositions, ordered 5 October 1697, in behalf of Mary Crumsey, to prove that she is the lawful niece once removed [i.e., grandniece], on the brother's side, of the testator, namely, that she is the daughter of William Hoddinott, deceased, by Mary Haskett, deceased, his wife, daughter of William Hasket, the elder brother of Elias Hasket the testator:

Mary Morgan, wife of Luodovic Morgan of Stalbridge [co. Dorset], where she has lived since her birth, aged 57 years, deposes that she has known Mary Crumsey from childhood, and watched with her mother, Mary Hoddinott, in her childbirth with Mary Crumsey. The said Mary Hoddinott, mother of Mary Crumsey, was daughter of William Heskott. She has known Mary Crumsey for about thirty-five years. She believes that she lives in London. Her father and mother were William and Mary Hoddinott, and she was born in Stalbridge in the house of one Taunton, in the posesssion of John Lyte. She knew her grandfather, William Hoddinot, who lived in Stalbridge. Her grandfather on the mother's side was William Hasket, but she does not know where he lived.

Ann Willowby of Stalbridge [co. Dorset], where she has lived thirty-seven years, deposes that she has known Mary Crumsey from childhood. William Haskett, her grandfather, was the elder brother of Elias Hasket the testator. Mary Crumsey lives in London, and was born in Stalbridge in the house of against Morgan Moone, gentleman, his wife's cousin. On 31 Mar. 1612, as William Simons of Exeter, gentleman, aged "threescore years or thereabouts," he deposed that he "hath ben dwelling in the parish of Axminster for the space of 10 yeres past or thereabout." In 1614 the young Simonds D'Ewes, his grandnephew, visited him at Exeter, and many years later, shortly before his death, William Symonds answered certain questions which this grandnephew had sent to him in regard to the Symonds family.

tFor a longer account of the career of Sir Simonds D'Ewes see the Dictionary of National Biography and his Autobiography. Cf. also Notes & Queries for Somerset and Dorset, vol. 13, pp. 129-130. There are some errors in dates in the statements in Notes & Queries, and the failure to use double dating there for the periods from 1 Jan. to 24 Mar., inclusive, is confusing. The list of children of Sir Simonds D'Èwes, as given in Notes & Queries and corrected, when possible, by the Autobiography, is as follows: Children by first wife: 1. Anne, b. at Islington 30 Apr. 1630 and bapt, there 13 May 1630; living in 1638. 2. Clopton, b. at Lavenham 24 June 1631 and bapt, there 5 July 1631; d. at Lavenham 9 July 1631; bur, there 10 July 1631. 3.
