

Lyon County

Note: Additional information may be found in the county files in the library of the Kentucky Historical Society

Cemetery Name	Address	City	Zip	# of graves	Notes
BARNETT				200
BEMBRAY				20	OLD (1800'S) BEMBRAY FAMILY AND THEIR SLAVES
BETHEHEM-RIVER VIEW				0
BOHANON				0	KNOW AS "CHINESE CEM"; UNKNOWN HOW MANY CHINESE ARE BURIED HERE AMONT THE AFRICAN-AMERICANS AND CAUCASIANS WHO WORKED AT THE NEARBY CENTER FURNACE DURING THE DEY DAY OF THE IRON INDUSTRY PRIOR TO THE CIVIL WAR. VERY OLD
BONNER				0
CHINESE				0	Chinese, African Americans and Caucasians who worked at the nearby Center Furnance during the hey day of the iron industry prior to the Civil War.
Chinese # 2				0
COLLIE, REUBEN				0
CURRY HOLLOW				0
DICKERSON				0
DUNCAN				0	VERY OLD PIONEER CEMETERY DATES AS EARLY AS 1819.
EMBERGER OR STOKER				0	Small cemetery served 2 German families. Dates uncertain.
FULKS				0
GRAY, GARRETT				0	GRAY WAS BORN IN KY IN 1813
GRAY, ISAAC				0	BEGUN IN 1858
HENDERSON CHAPEL				0	African Amer. Early to mid 1900s
HICKORY GROVE CEMETERY	OVERLOOK STATION	EDDYVILLE		1000

HIGGINS # 4					0	Begun in 1897, most of cem relocated during lake impoundment
HILDRETH					0	CIVIL WR VETERAN BURIED IN THIS SMALL FAMILY CEM.
HILDRETH					0
INGRAM					0	This cem may have been relocated, but site appears intact to accredited archaeologists. Dates to 1860s & perhaps before
JONES CEMETERY"	MARY BECK FARM				79	REV WAR VET AMD A WIRE SEPARATING WHITE/AFRICAN AMERICAN GRAVES
KUHN					0	German born Max Emil Kuhn came to America in 1863 and to this area in 1864. He & family of 4 are buried here.
Kuttawa Cemetery	Kuttawa, Ky		Kuttawa	42055	0	Gov Anderson is buried there
LADY					0
LADY (and SARDIS)					0
LADY, JACOB					0	Thought to contain grave of Revolutionary soldier, Jacob Ladyman, who arrived in this country in 1777 & in the area following War.
LEE-DODDS					0	It is thought this cemetery was begun by pioneers in a wagon train. Remains active today
LOFTON					0	4 GRAVES: 1185, 1890, 1911, NO STONES
LONE GRAVE					0	Grave of person found in Tennessee River in early 1900s.
LONE TRAVELER-CIRCLE					0	2 persons in their 80s say this cemetery was "old" when they were children. A stranger was found dead on trail and buried where he was found. No date is know at this time.
LOVELL, JOHN					0
MITCHUSSON					0
MOUNT PLEASANT					0
NEWBY					0	Begun in 1800s. Remains active
NICKELL					0	Maintained, remains active; Jerimiah Nickell buried here 1824

O'BRIEN					0	Family listed in Ky census as early as 1842, perhaps before.
PARADISE					0
PEGRIM					0	Previously unnamed. Very old; age uncertain
PEGRIM 2					0	Previously unmapped and unnamed. Very old
RACETRACK HOLLOW					0	Thought to date prior to Civil War
REIMENSCHNEIDER					0	3 INFANTS DIED 1800S
RIVERVIEW			EDDYVILLE		300	VERY OLD
ROACH					0	Hand scratched field stone dated Sept. 9, 1811
SARDIS & LADY					0
SCILLIAN					0	Artifact in this cemetery dates it pre-1870
SMITH					0	Begun around 1849; remains active
SMITH INFANT					0	1900s
SODEN					0	3 graves: 1882, 1877, 1913
ST. STEPHENS					0	1900s
STONE NEGRO					0	1900s
WATKINS					0	2 infants buried in 1911 and 1915; graves unreported & "lost" until ROC volunteers found site with advice of 2 90+ year old women
WILCOX					0	1885 & 1890
WILCOX, ISAAC					0	Isaac Wilcox died in 1858; other graves unidentified. Some say Indians buried here, too.
WOODSON CHAPEL					0	