

Home Family Tree Search Print & Share Community DNA Learning Center Store Add to Quick Links

UPGRADE >

NEHEMIAH'S LINE

"Family Histories and Genealogies" AUTHOR: Edward Elbridge Salisbury, 1892

Pages 549-553:

"Nehemiah Willoughby, born June 18, 1644, merchant and selectman of Salem, married, January 2, 1672, Abigail daughter of Henry Bartholomew, baptized October 6, 1650, died September 2, 1702; Constable 1679; allowed 1690 to sell wine, etc., out doors; died November 6, 1702. Issue :

"i. Francis, born September 28, 1672; baptized February 16, 1672-3; Deputy and Representative 1713; requested to provide King's Arms for the Court House, June 26, 1716 ; was probably of Boston 1734, when one of the name was appointed on committee for markets."

He married Bethia Gedney, April 26, 1705, who died November 24, 1713; after which he married Sarah Chauncey (their intention of marriage was published September 12, 1716)

" Issue [by first wife] :

"William, baptized at Salem, July 28, 1705; Harv. Coll. 1726; died 1735.

"Bethia baptized at Salem, March 27, 1709.

"ii. Nehemiah, born 1673.

"iii. Elizabeth, born June 22, baptized 28, 1674, at Charlestown ; died young.

"iv. Mary, born September 1, 1676; married, May 10, 1710,

Col. Thomas Barton of Salem, born July 17, 1680, Selectman, Town Clerk, physician, and apothecary, Lieut. Col. of the Regt; he died April 28, 1751; she died about January 1758. Issue :

"John born December 5, 1711; Harv. Coll. 1730; merchant of Salem; died unmarried, December 21, 1774.

"Mary, born October 5, 1715 ; married, June 27, 1734, Bezaleel

Toppan (son of the Rev. Christopher Toppan of Newbury), Harv. Coll. 1722, physician, died 1762. Had children Anna, and Mary, the latter married, in 1762, Col. Benj. Pickman, born 1741, Harv. Coll. 1759; lived on Essex Street, Salem, in a house which had come to Nehemiah Willoughby from his father-in-law Henry Bartholomew.

"v. Abigail, born April 4, 1679, at Salem; married Capt. Joshua Pickman (son of Benj. Pickman), mariner of Salem ; she died August 24, 1710; he died January 24, 1750, aged sixty-nine.

*vi. Sarah, born July 1684, at Salem. .

" vii. Elizabeth, born June 10, 1687, at Salem.

*viii. John, born December 11, 1688, at Salem ; mariner; June 19, 1710 (being of full age), he testified in regard to being acquainted with John Rowland, who was with him a year previous at Antigua, on a voyage with Capt. Robert Winter, &c. December 5, 1710, he acknowledged receipt of his portion of his late father's estate from his brother Francis Willoughby."

Additional information about this story

Description

Date

Location

- William Willoughby (1705 - 1735)
- Sarah Willoughby (1684 -)
- Nehemiah Willoughby (1644 - 1702)
- Nehemiah Willoughby (1673 -)
- Mary Willoughby (1676 - 1758)
- John Willoughby (1688 - 1745)
- Francis Willoughby (1672 - 1747)
- Elizabeth Willoughby (1674 - 1687)
- Elizabeth Willoughby (1687 -)
- Bethia Willoughby (1709 -)
- Abigail Willoughby (1679 - 1710)
- Mary Topan ()
- Anna Topan ()
- Mary Barton (1715 - 1762)
- John Barton (1711 - 1774)

Attached to

The content of this page should adhere to our community guidelines.

Visit Other Generations Network sites

Ancestry.com

Corporate Info Affiliate Program Advertising Ancestry Blog Contact Us

© 2009, The Generations Network, Inc. - PRIVACY STATEMENT | Terms and Conditions